

Tobacco Free Platte and Colfax Counties partnered with minority health at a local community diabetes screening. Forty-five community members attended the screening. Above you can see a mother explaining Mr. Gross mouth to her child as he learned about the dangers associated with tobacco. Each participant was given a second hand smoke brochure; window clings for both the home and car, and a smoke free home pledge.